In that year, owing to the extraordinary rise in the Cost and Freight of Coals, and the cohanced price of all descriptions of Naval Stores, the Directors were reluctantly compelled to return to the rates of Passage Money previously in force. They are now happy to state that a decrease in the price of Coal and other expenses of Steam Navigation enables them to reduce the Company's Passage rates to the undernoted scale, which wil take effect from and after the let June next, viz :-From Hongkong to :-

We take the following from the Straits Times of the 18 inst.

PARIS. 1st October, 1864. Some light is now thrown on the Franco-Italian Convention,—the text of it was published yesterday by the Moniteur. It is now certain that the transfer of the Capital to enother City than Turin was the condition expressly imposed by the French Government. A despatch from M. Drouyn de &c., facing the Military Nullah, and adjoining Lhuys to M. Malaret French Ambanuador at Torin | the premises of H. Winniseng, Ront $80 per insists on the details of the negotiation; it is only bronth. Possession to be had on 1st November, after the Government of Italy had given sufficient 1864. guarantees accepting its proposition, he required a gage and exacted before hand the choice of a capital, that is to say, an implicit renunciation of the decree of the 20th March which declares Rome the Capital of Italy. The Unitarians were right in their suspicions, then this time again Turin had received orders from Paris.

It is an advantage to is it un evil for I aly ! It is evident there is something hidden on one side or the other: one of the two retkons on chance or that God who marvellously belped M. Cavour and Italy, that is, that contradictions are as abundant as black berries. The signers of the Treaty who sam to abdicate all pretention to Rome. affirm in their report to the King that the promise not to commit or permit to be committed any attempt against the actual territory of the Holy scat, does not destroy the rights and the aspirations of the nation but that it indicates the necessity of operating by moral force alone to achieve the triumph of the National idea, but the National idea the right, the a piration, are resumed in a single word

"Rome" shall reconcile all this ! The new Ministry has accepted the convention the change of the capital, the integral inheritance o spirit and letter of the treaty of the loth September. One of the Ministers of the La Marmosa cabinet, M. Jolien, had a long time cherished the idea of unification by moral force alone; he published snore than 18 months ago a brochure of 1863," in which he maintains that the obtained on application to Thouvenel programme—that which is not rualised in the treaty of the 15th September, for from implying a renunciation of Large HOUSE, in Spring Gardens, having Six there. The treaty of the 1 ith September is then not of the Emperor -and in order that there should not be any doubt in the matter, he has taken care to make M. Drouya de Lhuys and M. Thouvenel sign both Con-

Milan, Sjoily and Naples have sent in their adhesion, numerous meetings composed of men of all parties, have approved the convention; only the adherents all indicate Rome as the object to which more than even the desires, and the efforts of the Italians should tend. The convention is a sign of marked progress in the resurrection of Italy, said the meeting at Milan ; it proves the way for the realisation of the National programmes which cannot be accomplished without Rome. Naples makes use of nearly the same terms by approving the convention, -she affirms more energetically than ever the right of Italy to Rome, to Venice, and a strange occurence took place at the Neapolitan meetg; all parties were represented, and for the first time they laid aside their former enmittes the A West, with Four Rooms, enclosed Porch, Remipiculas and the Consertonus shook hands Bathing and Dressing Rooms, Verandah all round, Musters fraternised with Sentenbrim, the fact will Outhouses, Garden, and enclosing Woll. Rent. perhaps tend to prove that Naples has not lost all | $50 per month. appar of becoming the provincial capital of Italy; and of dethroning Florance, The Neapolitan deputies are numerous, the Piedmonters bear enmity towards Florence whose name was first mentioned. Naples is composed of noble edifices and palaces which might become houses of royal residence and ministerial offices; thus effecting a notable economy but then Naples does not occupy a central position

This manimity in Italy is strange; it is so clear that one and all regard the convention as an act of hostility towards the Pope, the despatch of M. Drouyn de Lhyys to M. Sartiges would support the opinion. The Minister of foreign affairs accumulates the most police form-the guess of the French Government-it calls to mind the recent conflicts which arose between the Commanders of HOUSES joining in corner of Hollywoo the corps of accupation and the Pontificial au- & Road and Aberdeen Street, each has Six thorities, and declares somewhat bitterly that the Splendid Rooms. prolongation of the occupation would ablige the Possession can be given at once, French Government to partake of the responsibility of acts which it disapproves under the courtesy of words-much bitterness is perceptible. Drouny de Lhuys rap the knuckles of the Pont fical Government. In reaching the diplomatic document we say to ourselves, that France can no longer wish to prolong the existence of a Government similar to that which it so cloverly critirises and this is no doubt the dominant impression of the Italians, in fact, they say the evacuation in the restitution of Rome to the Bomans; the pontifical Government will then enter into the ordinary situation of any other Government-the governed will be discontented the Pope who does not know how to make himself liked will hardly have the means to reign by terror;from that time the Romans will drive out an odious Government and masters of their own destinies will unite themselves to Italy. The French Government will no longer have recourse to arms to replace the Romans under the hand of the Pope any more, than it is to give back Tuseany
